

SUBBAMMA AWARD - 2008

Y.M.K. SHARMA

Born on 31-10-1929 at Chennapattana is the fourth and youngest son of Late Y.V. Muniswamy Iyer of Yellagondahalli Village. An outspoken personality, he is one to conjure with! Capt. Sharma was commissioned in the Territorial Army (TA) in the year 1954 and had his early training at Regimental Regional Training Centre at Wellington. He served the heavy anti air craft regiment and later the Air defence Regiment (artillery). He retired from Territorial Army in 1965. After retirement he took up contract works along with his brother and earned respect from everyone. He is actively involved in many social activities in his native village Yellagondahalli. He has helped many of our community people by providing jobs. He is instrumental in setting up "Sri Matha Chowdeshwari Temple" at Yellagondahalli. We cannot forget the keen interest and timely suggestions rendered by him to our Association. He played a vital role in completing Ashtagrama Bhavana-an unforgettable achievement.

Capt. Y.M.K. Sharma is married to Sri Kalyani and they are blessed with a son and a daughter. Their son Dr. Vinayak Sharma is a Professor in Vishweshwaraiah Technical University. He is happily married to Smt. Indira Sharma. Daughter Smt. Vani Sharma who is equally dynamic like his father is married to Ltcol. (retd.) Dr. Ravi.

We wish the Sharma family godspeed in all endeavours.

It is a great honour to bestow the highest award of the Association. "The Subbamma Award" for the Services he has rendered to the society.
